SHIPPING POLICY

We ALWAYS send out orders on time. Any order made before 3:00 p.m. PST will go out the same day. Any order placed after 1: p.m. PST will go out the following business day. Orders placed on Saturday and Sunday will go out on Monday, or the next business day if Monday is a holiday. We cannot send out packages on holidays, obviously, because the post office is closed. If we have a question or problem with your order, we will contact you by email.

We use either USPS or Fedex to ship. We cannot control the amount of time it takes for a package to arrive. They usually take between 3 to 5 days after the tracking is scanned. Sometimes (rarely) the post office loses a package and it takes a little longer. Our best advice is to plan ahead and order larger orders.

TRACKING POLICY

Our number one most asked question is ?Where is my package??

We would like to explain our shipping process, and what happens after that.

First of all, when we package your order, we print a shipping label with a tracking number.

The tracking number does not become active until it is scanned by the post office.

We then bring the package to the post office, and place it in the package drop. After that there is nothing we can do to make the delivery go any faster. We send thousands of packages, and can count on one hand the number of packages that were never delivered. Please do not ask us where your package is, just check the tracking at this link

USPS Tracking

Fedex Tracking

<https://www.fedex.com/apps/fedextrack/?action=track>

Please try to understand that we do not own the post office, and there nothing that we can do to make your package arrive faster. We will only get the same information off the tracking as you will, we will not know one thing more than the tracking shows.

The post office doesn't always scan the packages.

The post office does not always update the tracking.

If your package does not arrive after 7 days, please contact us at info@nationalremedies.com

OUT-OF-STOCK PRODUCTS

We will ship your product as it becomes available. Usually, products ship the same day if ordered by 3:00PM Pacific Standard Time (California Time) , or by the next business day if your order is received after this time and for orders received on Saturday, Sunday or any major holiday. However, there may be times when the product you have ordered is out-of-stock which will delay fulfilling your order. We will keep you informed of any products that you have ordered that are out-of-stock and unavailable for immediate shipment. You may cancel your order at any time prior to shipping. You may also ask for a refund for the Out-of-Stock Products prior to shipping or up to 12 hours after your order.
